ACCUSEMENTS

This evening at the Butler an excellent program of pictures and vaudeville will be shown. Flynn and Howard a very clean team of song and dance artists, will open for a week's engagement. This team presents a number of comedy sketches and will always keep the audience in good humor. Bonnie Leonard, a very clever comedienne, will be heard in some songs and sayings.

The pictures for this evening are "The Father." This drama shows how a father sinned for the sake of his invalid daughter and how the sweet nature of the girl proved his affluence salvation. A Vitagraph drama entitled "The Gambler." A society woman takes a chance against a young debauche who is engaged to a man she admires. To break the engagement she gets the young girl in her power through a game of cards but she is beaten in the end when the man in the case learns her purpose. Two good Biograph comedies will be shown, entitled, "A Dash Through the Clouds" and "The New Baby," also a good scenic picture entitled, "Nevada Falls," showing many interesting scenes around this wonderful cataract.

CARSON FEARS LEGISLATURE MAY MOVE CAPITOL

CITIZENS IN MASS MEETING NAME CANDIDATES FOR THE ASSEMBLY

Carson voters, including democrats, republicans and Roosevelt men, Friday in a mass meeting in Carson City and after a long discussion named two men to represent them in the legislature. These men will go on the ticket according to present plans without opposition and will have no opposition in the general election. The two men chosen were Ed Walsh a democrat and Arthur Messer, a Roosevelt man.

Carson citizens fear that Winnemucca will attempt to take the capital this year, and for this reason want harmony in Ormsby county and want men who will fight against any attempt to move the capital. They believe that there will be a hard fight on the question and it was for this reason that the mass meeting was held and two men chosen to represent the people without opposition.
